12. (Confidential - LLM) Called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, to tell him that we were in the process of preparing a paper on the disposition of SAT and asked if he needed anything further in view of the extensive background previously developed for them. Slatinshek said it might be helpful but wanted us to check with Bill Hogan, of the Committee staff.

13. (Unclassified - LLM) Everett Bierman, House International Relations Committee staff, called and said the material we sent him on the Joint Committee proposal was excellent but he needed further help with a provision pertaining to reports to committees on covert actions which I provided him.

14. (Confidential - LLM) Tom Sullivan, on the staff of Representative Sam Steiger (R., Ariz.), called and said Mr. Steiger wanted to know the number of times Mr. Colby had appeared on the Hill. He said Mr. Steiger was going to go to Chairman Jack Brooks, House Government Operations Committee to try to cancel the hearing before the Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, that if Mr. Colby had not agreed to the hearings, the Chairman was prepared to serve him a subpoena, and that a Republican Conference was scheduled for Wednesday at 0930.

I later called Sullivan back and told him the Director had appeared before different committees 37 times this year which represents 41% of the time Congress has been in session.

15. (Confidential - LLM) Marshall Goldberg, Counsel, Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, Senate Judiciary Committee, called to determine if the information we had sent to Justice and U.S. Attorney Silbert contained interior shots of [] office taken by Howard Hunt. He said Silbert denies ever seeing interior shots. I told Goldberg I would check and be back in touch.

16. (Confidential - LLM) Called Cliff Hackett, House International Relations Committee staff, and arranged for the Director to brief an informal group of members on the intelligence stake [] Hackett 25X1 said he had secured room H 128 in the Capitol from 3:45 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, 25 June. I told Hackett that staff members should not be present under existing ground rules and he reluctantly agreed to back off on this one.
